

For the 2005-2006 election cycle, House Conservatives Fund payments disclosed as "PAC management" are inclusive of administrative expenses including, but not limited to, office space, utilities and personnel. Such payments have been made to Wilson Research Strategies and are currently to Michael Bober.
